

Neumann University Guest Lecture

Monica McGoldrick, PhD

Director of the Multicultural Family Institute

Best-Selling Author

Author of several best-selling books, Dr. Monica McGoldrick speaks on issues such as culture, class, the family life cycle, loss, genograms, remarried families, and siblings. Three of her books have become classics in her field, and she has received the American Family Therapy Academy Award.

A professor of Clinical Psychiatry at the Rutgers Robert Wood Johnson Medical School, she also serves as director of the Multicultural Family Institute in Highland Park, New Jersey.

One Neumann Drive • Aston, PA 19014

Saturday, November 3
10 a.m.

Schmidt Multipurpose Room

Admission: $25
(includes continental breakfast)

RSVP: 610-558-5572

Dr. McGoldrick's presentation is from 10:00 a.m. until noon. Following her talk, there will be time for light refreshments. From 12:30 until 2:30 a panel will offer insights into chapters of an edited book on the novelist Alice McDermott, whose subjects and settings trace the heritage and history of the sort of which McGoldrick in Irish American family systems. Authors of various chapters within the book, Gail Corso, Claudia Kovach, and Suzanne Mayer, ihm, will explore McDermott's themes from various novels. Both the morning and afternoon sessions are covered by the $25.00 fee. Contact hours from NBCC are available.